As warehouse keepers, we only have to insure the stored goods against the risks of fire, water, theft or damage due to another occurrence if there is an express written order of the person storing the goods with information as to the insured value and risks to be covered. Conditions and premium rates are available on request.

In cantons in which the risks of fire and natural events must necessarily be insured by the cantonal fire establishment, our clients are requested to take the necessary steps in order to insure these risks directly with these establishments according to the law.
